

ONE LITTLE WORD

WHERE GOD'S WORD MEETS GOD'S WORLD

Take It Home!

Liturgical Day: Christ the King Sunday (11/26/17)

Sermon Title: When Did We See You?

Summary of Sermon: In the surprising parable “The Judgement of the Nations” both the righteous and the unrighteous bear witness to their character without even realizing it. What do our actions, commitments and priorities say about our character?

Download Presentation Slides: <http://onelittleword.org/?p=9298>

reflecting on this week's worship

sunday evening

text: St. Matthew 25:31-46 discussion: What are some specific ways in which we can care for Jesus in his time of need?

monday

text: Ezekiel 34:11-16, 20-24
discussion: Why does God propose to replace the fat sheep with the servant David, the shepherd?

tuesday

text: Ephesians 1:15-23
discussion: How does Paul describe the power and majesty of Christ in this passage?

preparing for next week's worship

wednesday

text: Isaiah 64:1-9
discussion: How does Isaiah describe the faults and failings of the people of Israel in his day?

thursday

text: Psalm 80:1-7 discussion: Alienated from God, for what does the Psalmist pray in this section of Psalm 80?

friday

text: 1st Corinthians 1:3-9 discussion: What gifts does the Apostle Paul believe God has given to those who believe?

saturday

text: St. Mark 13:24-37
discussion: What does alert, faithful, wakeful, watchful anticipation look like in my life?

Next week: The First Sunday of Advent
To comment on Pastor Dave's sermons, visit:
www.OneLittleWord.org
or scan the QR code to the right:

This devotional guide comes from Saint Peter Lutheran Church in Greenwood Village, Colorado. For more about Saint Peter, visit www.StPLC.org.